

Paul Wearmouth

Paul is a speaker, author and a renowned authority on personal selling skills. His dynamic, inspiring and thought provoking style challenges people to change their thought process from “I wish” to “I want” sparking the desire to take action. Paul speaks directly from his own experience and shares his techniques for liberating untapped potential and putting you in control of your own success. Having faced and overcome a lot of adversity in his own life, Paul has become an expert in mindset mastery to deal with the issues that stop us from getting to where we truly desire to be and to install belief in individual greatness.

Prior to speaking Paul worked in the retail industry from the age of 16 with some big names such as Tesco, Next and Signet in a multi million pound client relations environment, so Paul knows business! From this Paul has seen what does and doesn't work and where true potential of any business lies. His speeches centre around what experience has taught him - that if you want to be successful, you need to take ownership of it and make small changes to gain a big result.

Paul's books “Sell Sell Sell” and “Wearmouth's Wisdoms” capture this message and everything he speaks about to further aid individuals to break free of the bonds that hold them back and allow them to surge forward and get to where they want to be.
